AUGUST: THE MONTH OF GREAT GRACE

Grace will position me for unusual exploits, grace will speak for me, grace will announce me, grace will pave a way for me.

This month marks the beginning of my season of unlimited provision.

I have entered a new season of no more lack in my life.

My business, education, and ministries will begin to operate on the frequency of greatness.

I will experience unusual promotion and success.

Great grace shall raise me to new levels of glory and honour. Those who looked down on me shall look upon me because of great grace.

God's grace will keep me from all evil. I will escape every danger and untimely death in the name of Jesus.

Grace will erase every area of shame and disgrace in my family.

I have grace to deny all ungodliness; I shall live to please God all the days of my life.

I shall move from one level of power to another, from one level of authority to another. Doors shall open for me because of grace.

God's grace will wipe away my tears and give me a new song.

Things that didn't answer to me then shall answer to me now.

I receive great grace.
